On March 17th, Irish people celebrate Saint Patrick's Day. Saint Patrick is believed to be the first person to bring Christianity to Ireland; he is seen as the protector of the country. This date marked the death of the Saint patron of Ireland. Traditionally, Saint Patrick's Day is an Irish cultural and religious celebration. Nowadays, it is an international festival where people celebrate by attending parades, feasting and drinking beer... However, the custom of wearing green, the colour of Saint Patrick, still remains. Wearing the shamrock, a three leaf clover, is also acceptable. In recent years, Saint Patrick's Day is not only celebrated in Ireland but also in many countries all over the world.
