b. Read the passage and do the following task.

HALLOWEEN IN AMERICA

Halloween was introduced to America by Irish immigrants around the 1840s. The holiday was also known by the name Devil's Night or Hell Night. People played mischievous tricks on their neighbors. For instance, they might steal some of their neighbors' eggs from the hen houses.

In today's time, it has become more family-oriented with Halloween custom games like "bobbing for apples" or a contest for the most original costume.

To bob for apples: place apples in a large tub filled with water. With their hands tied behind the backs, people try to catch one of these apples using their teeth. The person catching the most apples wins the game.

Decide which ones are True (T) or False (F).

- _____ 38. Irish people introduced Halloween to America.
_____ 39. People knew Halloween by the name Hell Night.
_____ 40. People stole eggs from the hen houses of their neighbors.
_____ 41. Halloween is not considered to be more family - oriented nowadays.
_____ 42. People don't wear anything special for Halloween.
_____ 43. People have an apple to play this game.
_____ 44. In the game "bobbing for apples", apples are placed in water.
_____ 45. People try to catch apples with their hands.

c. Read this letter from someone who is doing a language course in France. Circle the best option A, B, C, or D.

Dear Mom and Dad,

This is just a quick letter to let you know that I am fine. We're all working quite hard because the exams are only a few weeks away, but our teacher says he thinks we'll do well. (My landlady's not so sure - she keeps telling me I should stop watching so much TV and do a bit more reading).

Anyway, we had a wonderful time at half term. I went off to Paris for a few days (46) _____ some of the others from the school, and we went on a guided (47) _____ of the city. We saw most of the famous (48) _____ like the Louvre, where they have an amazing (49) _____ of paintings, and the Eiffel Tower. Then we went down to the South of France (50) _____ train. It was so fast - the whole (51) _____ was only about four hours. We spent (52) _____ time in Nice and in Cannes as well, and we all really enjoyed it. On our last day, we went to a small island called the Ile des Pelerines, and we saw the castle where they (53) _____ the 'man in the Iron Mask'. All in all, we had a great time and the weather was really good as well. The only thing I felt (54) _____ about was that we didn't have enough time to spare to go swimming - maybe next time. Anyway, I must go now as I've got to do a bit of (55) _____ for tomorrow. Will you write soon?

Love,

Kate
