X: Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

Hello! My name is Henry. I have a twin brother, Greg. We are like two peas in a pod. The only feature that makes Greg different from me is the tiny brown mole on the left side of his neck. We may look very much alike in appearance but we have very different personalities.

An introvert, Greg prefers indoor activities such as reading and listening to music. His presence is hardly noticed as he is as quiet as a mouse. I am the total opposite. I am an active person. I love all outdoor activities especially swimming and hiking. Many of my friends and relatives feel that I am as talkative as a magpie. However, I am not bothered by this comment. I feel that my chatty nature makes up for Greg's quietness.

Greg and I do have something in common. Our eyes brighten up with delight whenever mother bakes our favorite snack – chocolate chip cookies. Enjoying this treat is perhaps the only thing we do together.

1. What are the two differences between Henry and Greg?

Hari Raya Puasa is an important celebration in the Muslim calendar. The word "Hari Raya" means "a day of celebration". Many people mistake Hari Raya Puasa for the Muslim New Year but it is not. In actual fact, Hari Raya Puasa is a festival celebrated by the Muslims to mark the end of the one-month fasting.

Prior to Hari Raya Puasa, the Muslims fast for a one-month period. This is known as Ramadan. The fasting time begins at sunrise and ends at sunset. Everyone, including young children, has to fast. Only the sick are excused from fasting.

For this special occasion, the Muslims buy new clothes, give their homes a new coat of paint and buy new furniture. On the morning of Hari Raya Puasa, the Muslims wear their new clothes to the mosque to pray and offer thanks to their God. Then they will seek forgiveness from their elders before visiting friends and relatives.

Unmarried children will receive money placed in green packets from their elders. Many delicious dishes will also be served for this special occasion.

London, the capital of England and the United Kingdom, is the largest city in Europe. It is located on the River Thames and has a history of about 2,000 years. Over eight million people live in London. Hundreds of thousand people travel each day into London to work.

London has an oceanic climate, but generally it is a dry city. However, London is often very cloudy. On average it rains mildly just about every other day. Temperature extremes for all sites in the London area range from 38.1°C at Kew during August 2003, down to -16.1°C at Northolt during January 1962.

London's largest industry is finance. Together with New York, the City of London is one of the world's largest financial centres, making London a major world influence.

However, like many big cities, London has problems with traffic and pollution. Millions of people use the London Underground a day, but there are still too many buses and trams in the streets. The air isn't clean, but it is cleaner than it was 100 years ago.

V. Read the following passage and answer the questions. (1 p)

Some people think that sports and games are unimportant things. In fact, sports and games can be of great value, especially to people working with their brain most of the day.

Sports and games make our bodies strong and keep us healthy. But these are not their only uses. They give us valuable practice in making eyes, brain, and muscles work together. For example, in tennis, our eyes see the ball coming, judge its speed and direction, and pass this information on to the brain. The brain then has to decide what to do, and send its orders to the muscle of the arms, legs, and so on. So tennis helps train the co-ordination among eyes, brain, arms, and legs.

Sports and games are also useful for character training. In their lessons at school, boys and girls may learn about such virtues as unselfishness, courage, discipline, and love of one's country. In sports and games a pupil can really practise these virtues.

1. What do some people think of sports and games?

X. Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

The Year 2030

Hi! My name is Nam. In 2030, I will live in Viet Nam, on the one hundred and fifty-second floor of a tall apartment building. It will have a shiny white surface on the outside to reflect the sunlight and to keep it cool. On the inside, I will have central air conditioning. The big screen for me to watch movies will also be a fish tank. When it is switched off, I can see my pet fish swimming happily in it.

I will own a sky restaurant. My restaurant will be in mid air. My customers will take a special lift in a capsule to enter my restaurant.

In 2030, Viet Nam will still be a beautiful country. However, the grass and trees are unlike those today. They will be mostly in shades of yellow or brown. Life in this time will not appear too different from today, except that the weather will become hotter.

IX. Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

Would you like a robot in your house? It is now generally accepted that in the future robots will take over many of our tasks, especially jobs of a repetitive nature. But it's doubtful if robots will ever be able to do any of the more creative types of work – or indeed if people would want them to. In the home robots would probably be used to do the cleaning, table-laying, scrubbing and washing up, but it's considered unlikely so far that they will be used to do the cooking – at least not in the near future. Robots in the home might not be creative enough to do the cooking, plan the meals, and so on. They would be used as slaves, thereby freeing people to do more of the things they wanted.

VII. Read the text and answer the questions that follow.

Environmental pollution is a term that refers to all the ways by which man pollutes his surroundings. Man dirties the air with gases and smokes, poisons the water with chemicals and other substances, and damages the soil with too many fertilizers and pesticides. Man also pollutes his surroundings in various other ways. For example, people ruin the natural beauty by scattering junk and litter on the land and in the water. They operate machines and motor vehicles that fill the air with disturbing noise.

Environmental pollution is one of the most serious problems facing mankind today. Air, water, and soil are necessary to the survival of all living things. Badly polluted air can cause illness, and even death. Polluted water kills fish and other marine life. Pollution of the soil reduces the amount of land that is available for growing food. Environmental pollution also brings ugliness to man's naturally beautiful world.

1. How does man pollute the air?

2. Is water polluted by chemicals and other substances?

→

3. How does man damage the soil?

→

4. In what way do people ruin the natural beauty?

5. How harmful is air pollution to people?

There are good reasons for wearing uniform to school. First, before going to school, students do not have to waste their time choosing suitable clothing for the day. Second, they do not have to worry that their friend will judge the clothes or shoes they are wearing. There is no difference between them. Third, when students wear uniform, they behave better because people know they are from a particular school. They can also feel proud of their school.

Subject: Favourite room

Dear Peter,

Thank you very much for your e-mail. Now I'll tell you about the favourite room in my house.

I like all rooms in my house, but I have got a favourite room. It is the living room.

The living room is in the centre of the house. There are three sofas and a big table in the middle of the room. There is an LCD TV on the wall. There is also a big picture of my family on the wall. There are two bookcases against the wall.

I like the living room best because it is the place where all the members of my family are together. After dinner, we often stay there to watch TV and talk to each other.

What about you? What is your favourite room? Tell me in your next e-mail.

Best wishes,

Minh

Subject: Tet holiday

Dear Mary,

I feel very excited. Our Tet holiday is coming.

This year I will watch fireworks. I will help my mother cook special food. I will also visit our relatives.

However, I won't go to a pagoda. I won't cook Banh Chung. I won't eat lots of sweets.

At Tet, people should buy some salt. People should invite friends home. People should also plant trees.

However, people shouldn't bring home a black cat. People shouldn't empty out rubbish on New Year's Day. Children shouldn't ask for lucky money.

What about you? Tell me about your New Year.

Best wishes,

Lan

A lot of people in the world know Glasgow. It is the third largest city in Great Britain. It lies on the river Clyde in Scotland. Glasgow is a very old city. The University of Glasgow was founded in 1450. The famous English writer Daniel Defoe said that Glasgow was the cleanest and most beautiful city in Great Britain. James Watt studied at Glasgow University. He became a famous engineer and constructed a steam engine. Scotland is rich in coal and iron, so Glasgow grows into a large city. There are many big engineering plants and textile factories in the city.

My Future Dream House

My future dream house will be in Nha Trang. Made of sandstone, it will be close to the sea and built on a little hill with steps leading down to the beach.

The living room will have white marble flooring while the kitchen and bedrooms will have timber flooring. There will be many colourful paintings. My parents and I will live there.

We will have some robots in the house. They will help us do the housework, such as cleaning floors, cooking meals and washing clothes.

The family room will be my favourite place. It will be where we watch television, play board games and spend time together as a family.

Game

1. In the 1700s

A Swiss craftsman built – with the help of his son – a mechanical boy who was able to write short notes.

2. True

Robots come in all shapes and sizes. For examples, those used in the ocean look like mini submarines, and car factory machines look like long, metal arms.

3. A human-shaped robot

The word android means “of the species” and “man”, but the term covers both male and female robots.

4. Farmbots

Just as many industries have robots, so do some farms. Among the machines you could find: cow-milking robot, and most recently, a machine that shears sheep!

5. To perform dangerous jobs

Robots are brought in to perform dangerous tasks like deactivating bombs, handling chemicals, and even measuring temperatures in volcanoes where humans can't (or shouldn't).

6. Part human, part robot

A cyborg is a human with robot abilities. Kevin Warwick says he's the world's first cyborg because computer chips implanted in his arm let him open doors and control a wheelchair remotely.

7. Walk

For robots to walk, they have to balance themselves and be able to put their feet down as they step to prevent falls. If a robot gets even a few centimeters off balance, they can tip over.
