Each year, tons of tourists go to Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, Salvador, Recife and other important Brazilian cities to take part in the most famous Brazilian celebration: the Carnival.

It's usually in February, starts on Saturday (some cities start the celebration on Friday) and lasts until the next Tuesday.

The most important event of the Carnival in Rio de Janeiro is the parade when all of the "Samba Schools" perform to people on an avenue especially set for the occasion. Each samba school prepares a song theme (or "samba") and while it's sung by the samba school official singers, the samba school members pass through the streets dancing "samba", wearing costumes and some go on floats.

The floats, the singer, the members and the costumes have a unique theme, based on a story that is narrated by the "samba theme". It's common to see Brazilian and foreign artists participating in the carnival.

CHRISTMAS IN ENGLAND

In England, children get their presents on Christmas Eve, the 24th of December. Father Christmas comes at night when everyone is asleep. His reindeer can fly and takes him from house to house to deliver all the gifts. They land on the roofs of the houses and then Father Christmas climbs down the chimney to leave the presents under the Christmas tree. In the morning of Christmas Day, the 25th of December, children usually get up very early to unwrap their presents. Then they have plenty of time to play with their new toys. Christmas dinner is served in the early afternoon. Most people eat turkey, sprouts and loads of other vegetables, not forgetting Christmas pudding. The 26th of December is called Boxing Day. It has not always been a holiday. People used to go back to work on that day where their bosses gave them little Christmas presents in small boxes. That is why the day is called Boxing Day.

IV. READING

Read the passage and do the task below.

THE HISTORY OF THANKSGIVING (209)

On the fourth Thursday in November, in houses around the United States, families get together for a feast or a large meal. Almost all families eat turkey and cranberry sauce for this meal, and have pumpkin pie for dessert. This feast is part of a very special day, the holiday of Thanksgiving.

In 1620 the Pilgrims made a difficult trip across the ocean from England. They landed in what is now Massachusetts. In England the Pilgrims had not been allowed to freely practice their religion. So they went to the New World in search of religious freedom.

The Pilgrims first winter was very hard. Almost half of the group died of cold, hunger and disease. But the Native Americans of Massachusetts taught the Pilgrims to plant corn, to hunt and to fish. When the next fall came, the Pilgrims had plenty of food. They were thankful and had a feast to give thanks. They invited the Native Americans to join them. This was the first Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving became a national holiday many years later because of a woman named Sarah Hale. For forty years Sarah Hale wrote to each president and asked for a holiday of Thanksgiving. At last she was successful. In 1863 President Lincoln declared Thanksgiving a holiday.

TRANSCRIPT

SEASONS IN A YEAR PART 1

In some countries the weather is generally warm. In other places on Earth, from January to December it is cold during the 12 months of the year.

There are countries which have very difficult kinds of weather during different times of the year. These are Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter and they are called seasons.

In Spring, plants start growing again and trees get new leaves. After Spring, Summer comes. It's usually much hotter than Spring, and people can go swimming in the sea or in the lake, they can go climbing in the mountain or relax on the beach during their holiday.

SEASONS IN A YEAR PART 2

Autumn comes after Summer. You can see many colors in the countryside and the air starts to become colder. It is sometimes windy, the leaves turn brown, and then they fall from the trees. Forests look beautiful and people like going for walks through them.

Then comes the last part of the year, Winter. In this time of the year it is usually very cold if it snows, everything freezes. You can also see ice on lakes, but there is no color in the fields and countryside now. People can go skating, sledging and skiing.

CITY LIFE

When I was twelve, my family moved to the city. At first, everything was strange and difficult to me. Life in the city is always busy and the people are often in a hurry. I hated the noise and the busy roads. I hated crossing the roads the most. A lot of bikes, motorbike, cars and buses coming from every direction scared me. Now I get used to the life in the city. I am used to the noise and busy city traffic. I am no longer afraid of crossing the road. But I don't really like to live in the city. I prefer to live in the country.

CITY LIFE AND COUNTRY LIFE

Young people prefer the city life because they love the noisy and busy life there. They also think that it is easier to find jobs and money in the city than in the country. Therefore, more and more young people leave the country for the city every year.

Different from the young, old people like living in the country because the life in the country is quiet and peaceful. In addition, the air is fresher and they can eat healthier foods. After stopping working, many old people move to their home villages to live there.

TV PROGRAMMES

People of different ages have different hobbies for TV programs. Young children like watching cartoons best, so there are many films of this kind on children's corner. Teenagers like sports shows, fashion shows, movies (often detective), music (often pop and rock) and sometimes cartoons. But there are not many good programs for people of this age. Adults prefer to watch the news, reports, movies and contests. Old people like watching and listening to classical music best. They also watch movies, the news and other programs that suits them.

AN UNHEALTHY LIFESTYLE

It's a warm summer's day in the school holidays but the Smiths' children are not out playing, they are in a darkened room, glued to the TV set, zapping aliens on their Nintendos or surfing the Internet.

As their friends ride their bikes, go swimming, play football and walk the dog, the only games the Smiths' children play are those on the computer, and their only pet is the mouse.

Not only the Smiths' children but many other children, begin their TV viewing early and finish late. Programmers designed to entertain young viewers begin in the early morning. So, parents may still be in bed when their children are already up and channel hopping.

According to an American study for the U.S. National Institute of Education, ten hours TV watching a week is a healthy level and any more than that results in under performance at school and an unhealthy lifestyle.

Van: Are you going to do anything together that night?

Ngoc: No, I think he'll be too tired and will probably just want to go to bed early.

Ngoc: I am so looking forward to having him here.

DIANA'S NEW JOB

Alan: Hey Diana, how is your new job going?

Diana: Hey Alan. It is great. I love driving those tourists around. It's one of the best jobs I've ever had.

Alan: Where did you take them today? Were you on the bus?

Diana: Yeah, we had them on bus and we took them to the canyon.

Alan: Wow, that must have been great. Did you have many people with you today?

Diana: Not so many. I think a few people didn't feel too great today and decided to stay at the hotel. We did too many things yesterday and a lot of people were feeling tired in the morning when we picked them up from the hotel.

Alan: Were you the only guide with the tourist group yesterday?

Diana: No. Mark was there and he helped me a lot.

Alan: Did you have time for lunch?

Diana: We didn't have any time for lunch at all. The tourists had something to eat in the cafe near the canyon entrance but we had to organize the rest of the day with the staff at the park. We had a few minutes just to grab a sandwich later on.

Alan: That doesn't seem very fair. You guys work too hard.

Diana: They pay us well and the job's enjoyable so we can't complain.

Alan: Right.

HALLOWEEN FUN

Halloween is one of the most famous holidays in the U.S, and it is on October 31. People carve pumpkins and make funny faces on them. These are called "Jack-O-Lanterns." On October 31, children wear a special costume such as a witch, ghost, or clown. They go to many houses and they knock on the door saying, "Trick or Treat!" It means that if people don't give them a treat, they will play some kind of trick on the household. So, people usually give candy to them.

I carved my first Halloween pumpkin at my Friendship Family's house. First, I cut open the top of the pumpkin and pulled the seeds out. It was not good for me because it was sticky and smelled awful. I had never carved a pumpkin, so it was interesting for me. Next, I carved the eyes and the mouth. I wanted to make a face like a pirate. When I finished making the face, I put a candle inside. It was very beautiful, so I was happy.

I had a good experience because I learned one new idea about American culture by taking part in it. I think Halloween is an interesting American holiday which involves all family members and neighbours too!
